

ACENTRA TECH – Study Material (Chibuike Emmanuel)

Study + Operating Template (New Hire)

Role Definition (Read First)

Your job is not to grow followers or promote tools. Your job is to create a frictionless conversation, making people feel understood, help users articulate their fits and constraints with their Electric Vehicle.

Internal Community

You are to quietly redirect people who want depth into r/EVRoutine. If it feels like selling, pushing, or optimizing then you're doing it wrong.

Tasks / Todo's for today

- Internalize OFFO's language, tone, and framing so you sound native, not branded.
- Required Reading (Daily)
- Read without commenting for the first day.
- Create Reddit account call EVFit.

Subs to focus on

- r/electricvehicles
- r/EVs
- r/teslamotors (observe, don't engage early)
- r/EVRoutine (read everything)
- r/ElectricVehiclesUK
- r/electriccars (Very important)

What to Study

For each thread you are to note, what triggered replies? Where did their frustration appear?

What made people open? Where did arguments start? Which comments calmed the thread?

Create a simple doc that notes things like:

- “Toics that cause peoples EV Frictions”
- “Language People Use”
- “Moments of Uncertainty”
